

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 9, 2008 (Hauppauge, NY) Four local accountants-Elizabeth Vuozzo, Maryann Delgiorno, Laura Marques and Anna Kupinska all from the accounting firm, Fuoco Group LLP, recently graduated from The Leadership Academy program in Nashville, Tennessee. Graduate ceremonies were held on December 4, 2008 for students completing their second year of the program.

“Graduates of The Leadership Academy add tremendous value to their accounting firms and clientele. The program focuses on helping each participant acquire the knowledge and skills of a successful leader,” stated John Krenson, Senior Vice President and Leadership Academy curriculum developer. Lou Fuoco, managing director of Fuoco Group, said “We are pleased to have partnered with The Leadership Academy over the past several years. At Fuoco Group, our focus is and has always been on serving our clients and through this program.....

The Leadership Academy, one of three training programs within The Rainmaker Academy, focuses on making the transition from managing projects to managing people and cultivating loyal associates through a step-by-step approach to learning.

Media Contact:

Joanne McInnes, Executive Administrator

Office: (631) 360-1700

Email: jmcinnes@fuoco.com