FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fuoco Group Director Barry Krostich and Thomas Fell attend Enterprise Worldwide International Services Forum 2010.

Hauppauge, NY – October 6, 2010 Fuoco Group Director Barry Krostich and Thomas Fell attended Enterprise Worldwide International Services Forum 2010 this past week. The event was held in London, at the Hilton London Green Park September 30 - Oct 1, 2010.

The International Services Forum 2010 focus this year was on “Building Bridges”. Enterprise Worldwide is a global alliance of 70 firms in 30 countries. Enterprise Worldwide firms work together to serve their clients through collaboration and information sharing on the latest technical developments in local, national and international markets. Conference attendees and speakers are accounting professionals who represent financial industries throughout the globe.

“The forum was a meeting of accountants from all over including the U.K., Russia, Italy, Mexico, India, Malta, Germany, Ireland, Netherlands, Turkey and Belgium. We discussed issues facing all accounting firms. We also discussed the adoption of IFRS for small and medium size enterprises. Being a part of Enterprise Worldwide enables the Fuoco Group to be an international Firm with professional resources around the world.” explains Barry Krostich, Director of Fuoco Group - one of the region's leading accounting and consulting organizations.

“For me personally, it put everything in a better perspective as to what EW really is and how it helps smaller accounting firms compete on all levels in a global economy.” stated Thomas Fell, Senior Staff Accountant at the Fuoco Group.

Barry Krostich brings 30 years of accounting and financial experience to his clients. His clients over the years have included medical practices, not-for-profits, wholesale distributors, linen services as well as many other closely held family owned businesses. He has been retained as a business consultant, auditor, accountant, financial and tax planner.

Thomas Fell is a seasoned accounting professional; he has served the needs of large and small businesses in the construction, agriculture, restaurant, and real estate industries, as well as nonprofit and governmental sectors.
