

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Manager Laura Marques, CPA; awarded 2010 Long Island Business News Journal's Who's Who In Women in Professional Services and Senior Living

Hauppauge, NY October 25, 2010 - Fuoco Group, a leader in Accounting & Business Advisory Services, announced that Laura Marques, Manager at the Fuoco Group; was awarded 2010 Long Island Business News Journal's Who's Who In Women in Professional Services and Senior Living, awarded by a panel of independent judges from across the professional industry.

"While most agree that the impact of this tough economy is not gender-specific, there are some aspects of it that affect women in business differently than their male counterparts" states Long Island Business News Editor, Lisa Morris Josefak.

Marques was among the 50 women recognized out of hundreds of nominations received. She was honored for her professional achievements, commitment to company and colleagues, dedication to mentoring other women in gaming and in their professions, and strong overall work-life balance.

"We are delighted that Laura has been recognized with this prestigious award," said Lou Fuoco, Fuoco Group's Managing Partner. "Laura has done a simply superb job of overseeing the many complex regulatory and compliance requirements facing our clients today. She leads by example with an attitude that is professional and courteous."

In addition to her role as accountant and business advisor to many clients, Ms. Marques is currently responsible for training and supervising junior level staff, and is the firm's not for profit auditor in charge. Ms. Marques has also been involved in engagements pertaining to business valuations.
