The Fuoco Group Appoints Matthew Pinto, CPA, Director, Real Estate Financial Services Group

Hauppauge, New York, May 2009 – The Fuoco Group proudly announces the appointment of Matthew Pinto, CPA, as Director of their Real Estate Financial Services Group. The appointment of this highly experienced executive is expected to accelerate the growth of the accounting and consulting firm’s practice in the real estate and construction management sectors.

Mr. Pinto is recognized as a financial expert throughout the business community. His background includes positions with some of the largest real estate and construction firms in the nation. Prior to his new appointment, Mr. Pinto was a Partner at Marcum & Kliegman LLP. His decision to join the The Fuoco Group was based on the potential he sees for developing the firm’s real estate practice into a value-added consultancy. According to Pinto, “Given The Fuoco Group’s commitment to exceeding expectations, I feel that I will have the flexibility I need to go beyond conventional financial and accounting services, and provide my clients with a truly full-service, consultative approach to planning and securing their success.”

With over twenty years of experience in finance and accounting for real estate, construction management, and asset management, Mr. Pinto has developed a diverse skill set applicable to all aspects of the industry. He has successfully lead teams in the financial oversight of a broad range of projects, such as office buildings, shopping centers, hotels, mixed-use residential projects, and golf courses. He is also highly experienced in managing funds and REIT’s for pension funds, institutional investors, and private owners.

The 40-year-old Mr. Pinto is a graduate of St. John’s University with a B.A. in Accounting. He is a member of the AICPA and active in several associations related to the real estate industry. He resides in Glen Head, NY, with his wife and daughter.

The Fuoco Group is a full service accounting and consulting firm with offices located in Hauppauge, NY; New York City; and North Palm Beach, FL.
